From the Vicar . . .

Our 600th Anniversary celebrations are well underway. If you haven't had chance to get up to the church to look at the displays, then there is still time to see them. Oonagh Mahaffey has given us a lot of material about the history of our church and the church in general. There are a number of other displays too in church from other members of the congregation showing photographs from different times and different groups within the church. Thank you to everyone who contributed.

Part of our celebrations will take place on St John the Baptist Day itself with a bring and share lunch and a special Evensong. Please contact Peter Smith if you would like to be in the choir for this. John, Bishop of Selby was unable to make this day and will be joining us for a special service on 8th July at 3.00pm in the afternoon. The 10.30am service will be cancelled on this day and the other churches are invited to join us in the afternoon.

John the Baptist was a very humble person, as Mark's Gospel tells us. Jesus comes to John and is baptized by him in the river Jordan. The account describes how, as he emerges from the water, the heavens open and the Holy Spirit descends on him 'like a dove'. A voice from heaven then says, "You are my Son, the Beloved; with you I am well pleased."

John was a person who always knew that he would play "second fiddle" to his younger cousin. This was something that he accepted, he understood his role as doing work to glorify God. He gladly stood back to let his cousin come into the limelight.

John, his work completed wasn't allowed a long and happy retirement. He was taken prisoner and then executed at the hands of the authorities. Life was cheap to the authorities here on earth. Even though John's life was short, he did the work that God sent him to do.

We have had 600 years of the current building here in Easingwold, God's work has been done by the many people who have lived here. We have a legacy that we can pass on to others. John the Baptist continues to be an inspiration to people on earth and here in Easingwold we continue to try and work in the same vein, working on doing our best to get God's work done.

Every blessing, Margaret

Annual Parish Church Meeting (APCM)

22nd April 2018

The APCM was preceded by a short Parishioners' meeting to facilitate the election of Church Wardens for the coming year. Juliette Jennings continues in the role whilst Ian Peel, who has now had reached the end of his term of office, is succeeded by Alizon Leese.

Copies of the full report for the year 1st January to 31st December 2017, which also included a statement of financial activities for that year, were available prior to the meeting with electronic copies forwarded on request. # “Thou, God, Seest Me” - A Story

A small boy, Johnny, went to stay with his Aunt and Grandmother. His Grannie loved having Johnny, but she was getting old and Aunt thought it a pity he had to come just now as Gran had not been too well lately. Most of the time Aunt could be around and make sure he stayed quiet; or she took him out or let him play in the garden. But one afternoon she had to go to a meeting and couldn't take Johnny; she was anxious about leaving him alone with his Gran, although the old lady assured her it would be OK, and she'd like to have him to herself for a while.

Just before the Aunt went out she took Johnny aside and said, “Now you will be a good boy, won't you, and you won't disturb Gran, will you? You can't go in the garden this afternoon and you mustn't make a noise and you mustn't play with that train in here. You can sit over there and read that nice book or do that puzzle I gave you. Don't pull on the curtains and don't touch the ornaments, will you?”

She drew breath and looking round the room, her eye lighted on a text which Gran had framed and hung over the mantelpiece. “There” she said, pointing, “Can you read that?”

Johnny carefully pronounced, “Thou, God, seest me”. “Yes,” said Aunt, “just you remember that. Whatever you do, God will see you – so be a good boy!”, and on that triumphant note she went out.

Johnny moved across to the table where the puzzle was, and cast a wary eye on Gran. Gran was smiling and shaking her head. “You know Johnny, It doesn't mean that at all. It means, God loves you so much he can't take his eyes off you!”

PRAYER CORNER

Prayer is at the heart of what the church is about and the prayer corner in St John's continues to be used regularly. Please write the names of people you would like to be remembered in the book there. We also have a prayer chain, where a number of people pray for those in special need. If you would like prayers for yourself or another, in church or on our confidential Prayer Circle, please contact Deacon Lottie Cranfield on 824399. Please include in your prayers this month:

- All who live and work in the southern area of Easingwold including those in the new housing off York Road.
- Easingwold Secondary School staff and pupils; activities taking place out of school hours.
- St. John the Evangelist Roman Catholic church; the Community Church.
- Those living at The Green, Raskelf; the Gee Gee Riding School.

Churchyard Sheep

Most readers of the magazine will know that the grass in part of the Parish Church burial ground is kept under control by a team (flock?) of very dedicated sheep. Last year's incumbents moved on before Christmas, and their successors have arrived. And thereby hangs a tale (tale?).

"Following on from last years ethnic introduction into the Easingwold church yard we have yet again opened the field gate and brought some Southernns up north.

The "Hampshires" are from the Southern downs area of England, somewhere below Sheffield in that case and, according to neighbour Mrs Duck whose family manufacture pillows and duvets in the downs area, the five ladies have been sent north on a sabbatical following an embarrassing incident back home involving an American Egyptian visitor, Mr Tex el Tupp, who managed to get all five ladies tupp'd (pregnant) within the space of his three week visit. (Must have had a teaser in the area ! ...that's a sheep joke.)

He has now been sent "up t'dale" in disgrace while the family are left to gather their thoughts on the sudden flush of grandchildren, six gimmers, one wether and one entire tupp lamb. (An "entire" means his nads are in tact and he hasn't been converted to a jaffa.)

Social services have been informed about the sudden increase in single parents in the Easingwold area but didn't have a spokesperson available to comment as it was a bank holiday yesterday and Gladys doesn't work on odd-numbered days or any days that have a letter "y" in the spelling.

However, we have been to local food bank in BATA and secured 1/2 tonne of sheep nuts and a lick bucket so hopefully they will settle in nicely.

Happy to have a naming competition if required for the eight new arrivals. Obviously Shaun is so 'last year' so something a bit more imaginative will be expected ..."

Suggestions to the Churchwardens please!

With sincere thanks to Richard Hawkhead

I would like to thank all the people who have helped with the displays in church and with the celebrations that have happened so far, especially Oonagh Mahaffey for the brilliant St James Bible displays.

There are still a variety of events still to happen on the 600-year anniversary celebrations calendar; from painting and craft competitions, to singing in the deanery choir and a quiz, in which people can help or participate.

In June we have a concert by Jubilate on Friday 8th, a “Bring and Share” lunch after the Sunday service on the 24th followed by a Festal Choral Evensong at 6.30pm with other churches in the deanery joining us.

Thank you also to everyone who has visited and supported the events.

“ ... A Time to Laugh ... ” – Ecclesiastes 3:4

As the bride was escorted up the aisle by her father, a small boy loudly whispered to his mother:

“Mummy, why is she wearing a long white dress?”

“Because she’s the bride, dear.”

“But why is she wearing a white dress?”

“Because brides always do! Now, shush!”

“But you said she would be the one to wear the trousers!”

A newly married church-going couple had just returned from their honeymoon and were discussing the sharing of domestic chores:

She: “I think you should make the early morning tea.”

He: “No, that is surely down to you as part of the catering.”

She: “Nevertheless, it’s your job – it’s in the Bible!”

He: “Where?”

She: “Which Book comes after Paul’s letter to Philemon?”

He: “Ah, of course, He-brews!”

Free Passes for York Minster
