IT'S GOOD TO SMILE

PREACHERS AND PASTORS

Reverend Billy Graham tells of a time in his early ministry when he arrived at a small town to preach a sermon. Needing to post a letter, he asked a young boy the way to the post office. "If you come to the Baptist Church this evening, you can hear me telling everyone how to get to heaven."

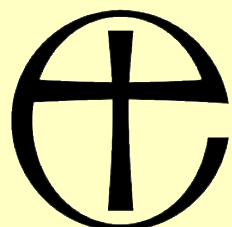

The boy replied, "Thanks, but I don't think I'll bother.. You don't even know your way to the post office."

The new vicar's car broke down so he took it to the local garage on Monday. The mechanic identified the fault and said it would take a few days to fix. "Please go easy on the costs," said the vicar, "I'm just a poor preacher."

"I know," said the mechanic, "I heard you yesterday."

From Rev'd John Hetherington

The first weekend in June is usually a rather sad affair. The FA Cup Final took place on the 17th of May, and as I write this it is yet unknown whether Crystal Palace can overcome the mighty Man City. In addition to this the final Premier League games happened on the 25th of May, and again, as I write this I don't know whether Newcastle secured a Champions League Place, nor do I know who won this year's Champions League Final on the 31st of May.

That's it, no World Cup or Euros in 2025, so it's a case of football over now until we reach the Charity Shield game at some point in mid-August, a game that certainly looks to be between Liverpool and Man City.

As I pen this article (perhaps that should be 'Keyboard' this article) in time for the magazine copy date things are as yet still undecided when it comes to the top five in the Premiership, and there are still possibilities for Aston Villa, Chelsea and Nottingham Forrest to beat Newcastle to one of those Champions League spots.

Why, you might ask, is an ordained priest in the Church of England, which is what I am, so obsessed with football?

Well, it's probably because the God I believe in also likes football; he must do, after all he invented the game.

It's true! If you open the Bible you'll find loads about football in its pages. You'll also find an endless list of clubs contained within it: there's Derby, Queen of the South, Arsenal, Reading (probably best pronounced reading but it's spelt the same). Then there's Hull, Leeds (spelt LEADS), Ayr (spelt AIR), not to mention Saints, United, City, Forest and even the Hammers - who, might I say, haven't had a brilliant year after getting rid of David Moyes as their manager. Oh and there's also Mansfield and Bury (yes honestly, trust me, it actually says 'go and Bury him in that Man's field').

But we already know that Liverpool have secured the Premier League Title, Newcastle have won the Carabao Cup – their first domestic silverware in some 70 years, and alongside Liverpool there will be a further four teams delighted with places in the Champions League come the end of the season, a couple more in the Europa League, one in the European Conference League, and of course there will be an FA Cup winner (probably not Crystal Palace – but I do hope that I'm wrong in that).

And before we reach the glory of the World Cup which is taking place in July next year as the competition visits the U.S., Canada and Mexico (assuming they are all still talking to each other amidst the current 'Trade Wars'), and we then see which players have impressed Thomas Tuchel enough throughout next season to secure a place in the England squad, and also which ones have been left out – before we get to that point, there will already have been stacks of disappointment faced by a great many players, and yes, probably managers as well who work in a very precarious world.

But whoever wins cups, leagues, promotion or whatever, there will be those who miss out, those who feel the bitter taste of failure. And they'll no doubt find it extremely difficult - it's a very humbling experience realising that you've failed, that you're not the best at the end of the day.

A prayer I heard some time ago is probably very suitable for footballers, or indeed anyone who finds themselves in a challenging situation. It goes like this:

Dear Lord, so far today I've done alright: I haven't showed my fear and disappointment to anyone, I haven't been overbearing, arrogant or obnoxious. I'm really glad I've accomplished all of these things on my own. But in a few minutes Lord, I'm going to have to get out of bed and face the day – and from that point on, I'll need all the help I can get from you. Amen.

Blessings as always,

Rev John

CHURCHWARDEN'S REPORT FOR THE 2025 APCM

This past year has been a challenging one. For much of the year Margaret Young has been sick and, in November, retired as our incumbent due to her ill-health. During this period we have relied heavily on retired clergy, Robin Davill, John Hetherington, Trevor Lewis and David Senior as well as visiting clergy including Adele Rees. With all the help that has surrounded us we have kept our church open and many extra activities going. I am grateful to Alizon Leese for her help in arranging the clergy rota over the period of Margaret's illness and in interregnum.

I am grateful too to those colleagues on PCC who have worked to prepare our Parish Profile, to make arrangements to advertise our vacancy and to interview shortlisted candidates. All of this has been achieved at an admirable pace and it is hoped that our new incumbent will be in role within a few months.

Work on the church building and churchyard has been largely undertaken with the help of Peter Simpson and I am grateful for his knowledge, experience and time (not to mention coffee) in achieving much this year.

Peter has worked on the churchyard, removing a yew hedge that had never properly established and laying a new footpath through the area. The area has been cleared of left-over topsoil and some overgrown hedges trimmed right back. This has enabled burials in the churchyard extension.

We have had the dead ash tree removed from the old graveyard and have made arrangements for the main path to the church to be re-laid early in the new church year. Following a tree and shrub plan undertaken on our behalf by Bartletts, we have removed dead branches from some trees as well as undertaking a plan for the monitoring and improvement of all trees in our churchyard and car park areas.

A faulty window in church will be closed and, following a particularly destructive storm, we removed branches from the cypress tree that borders the church path and made good the electrics, with a view to replacing a lamppost that was blown over in the same storm.

We look ahead to the new year, when we intend to make arrangements to redirect our water supply and replace some old pipes. We will make arrangements for repairs to the church roof in line with the most recent quinquennial report.

All in all it has been quite a year and I am more than grateful for all the help and support during my own health absences. I am astonished at what we have achieved together over the last year and now look to future challenges with hope and positivity.

Since taking over the role of Churchwarden in April (2024) I have attended a Churchwarden workshop in Clifton Moor where the diocese arranged talks about money, building requirements and possibilities, and spiritual leadership. Repairs to a broken stained glass window were undertaken, and tree surgeons have lopped three lime trees, removing dangerous and broken branches and raising their crowns. The dead ash tree in the graveyard has also been checked out and plans are in place for its removal. Work will commence as soon as planning approval has been received.

It was agreed by PCC that Bartletts would undertake a tree and shrub survey of the churchyard, but the date has not yet been fixed.

Work continues with our architect, Alexa Stephens to repair the footpath from the lychgate to the porch, redirecting our water supply as well as electricity supply to the lychgate for installation of a defibrillator.

YOU and ME

.....bringing people together

On Wednesday 14th May a small group visited the Birds of Prey Centre at Burn Hall. We had a really interesting time viewing the wide variety of birds, 98 in all. This was followed by an interesting and informative not to say amusing talk about the different birds. We heard about their countries of origin, amazing skills and incredible abilities. We all had an opportunity to have owls and even a Golden eagle fly onto our gloved hands. It proved to be a splendid morning out.

Please note that the Afternoon Tea which was to be held in church on Sunday 22nd June is now cancelled. Look out for a new programme to be published soon.

Hazel and the You and Me Team

Your Church Needs You!

Volunteers are essential to keep any organisation running and we are fortunate in having many to fill the essential jobs. However there are always others needed, as some have to stand down for a variety of reasons. We have been looking for a Treasurer for over a year now and it is time that position is filled. There is a treasury team and back up will be provided, so you would not be on your own. Could it be you, or do you know someone who might, with encouragement, fill this important role?

I am looking for someone who might be willing to order the necessary items for sacristy (candles, wafers, wine etc)? This is not an onerous job but needs someone to keep an eye open as to when items are required.

We also need someone willing to check on household items (paper towels soaps etc) and acquire those as needed and then put in a claim?

Have you thought of leading intercessions (training given) occasionally? We are constantly in need of people to help with coffee after services, or on other occasions when we host events? We also need more to help maintain the flowers, which we enjoy each week in church.

Please do seriously consider whether you could help in some way and if so contact me (Chris Peel 01347 823548) or the Parish Administrator (office@easingwoldraskelfanglican.org) at any time. Thank you.

CHURCHWARDEN'S REPORT FOR THE 2025 APCM ST MARY'S CHURCH, RASKELF

Services continued on the 1st and 3rd Sundays of the month at 9.30am with coffee and tea served afterwards. Thank you to all the clergy who have taken our regular and special services.

The Harvest Festival in October was also Rev'd Margaret's final service. At the end, refreshments were served and several gifts were given to Margaret and Tim to thank them for all they had done for St Mary's and our village. £354 was collected for RABl.

The collection taken at the Service for Remembrance was for the Royal British Legion.

The carol service with Easingwold Town Band was well attended with mulled wine and mince pies served afterwards.

Unfortunately we could not have the Crib and Christingle service on Christmas Eve as there were no available clergy but everyone was invited to Easingwold Church to join the services held there. The Christmas Eve service, led by Rev'd Adele, commenced in The Old Black Bull where carols, accompanied by two instrumentalists, were sung inside before the congregation made its way to the church along with Abby the donkey. After pausing en route to sing and hear readings, the group entered the church to join the rest of the congregation and to partake in Holy Communion.

We continued to fundraise during the year towards the Restoration Fund. The bingo evening raised £657 and the curry night £1,135. I would once again like to thank everyone who supported our fundraising events in 2024.

The application made for a grant to UK Shared Prosperity Fund North Yorkshire was successful and they gave us £16,990 for the feasibility study into the tower up to RIBA stage 2. In addition we were awarded £3k from the National Churches Trust towards the same project.

In November both the Measured Building, Topographical Site Surveyor and the Structural Engineer came to the church and submitted reports to the Architects so that plans for the tower can be drawn up.

Volunteers still come in regularly to tidy up and cut the grass around the church. £20 was donated towards the cost of petrol for the mower.

The five year electrical test was carried out in April, the fire extinguishers have been serviced and the annual lightning protection check carried out.

PRAYER CORNER

Prayer is at the heart of what the church offers to the community, and the prayer corner in St John the Baptist and All Saints' is used regularly. It is a space where you are able to write the names of people you would like to have remembered in the book there. At St John the Baptist and All Saints', we join with you in your prayers for family, friends and all for whom you care.

If you would like prayers for yourself or another, or for those who, at this time, are struggling with anxiety, loneliness and isolation, our small, confidential and dedicated group of people will pray for you/them. To be included in prayers, please contact Chris Peel on 01347 823548.

Please include in your prayers this month:

- ◇ All who live and work in the southern area of Easingwold
- ◇ Outwood Academy's staff and pupils; activities taking place out of school hours
- ◇ St John the Evangelist Roman Catholic Church; the Community Church; Hope Church
- ◇ Those living at The Green, Raskelf

PRAYING TOGETHER

We are called by Jesus to pray together as well as individually. This doesn't mean just in services - although that is important - but with family, friends or Church members.

Prayers are especially needed for our church at this time as we await the appointment of a new vicar. Many are helping to keep the church running in a variety of different ways and we give thanks for all of them. We pray that the right person will come to lead us forward in the coming years.

Prayer is also needed for the other churches in our town and for our community. There is much to give thanks for, and to pray about locally, as well as for the wider world. Do join us at the Methodist Church on the second Saturday (10th May), as we meet to pray with folk from the different churches.

BIBLE READING FELLOWSHIP NOTES

We are all encouraged to read the Bible to help us in our spiritual journey. Where do we start? It is quite daunting. This is where the Bible Reading Fellowship can help us. 'New Daylight' is a daily reading of a short section from the Bible with an explanation of the reading. This helps the reader to understand it, and it makes life easier for us because we don't have to find it in the Bible ourselves.

Please contact Gina, either in Church or by phone. (01347 823843). She can show you examples, and, if you decide you would like to try it, she will order it for you and deliver it. It only costs £13.80 a year for 365 daily readings – less than 4p a day.

Gina Smith - 01347 823843—BRF Co-ordinator

Christian Meditation

Most Fridays at 2.30 pm to 3.15 pm at the Galtres Centre Function Room (upstairs)

It includes periods of music and silent meditation

In today's culture this is an opportunity of being together in a reflective mood including silence. After a brief period of spoken reflection we experience some reflective music. We then enter a period of silent meditation for about 20-25 minutes. Some people use a 4-beat mantra such as "Ma-ra-na-tha" (or Come Lord Jesus), said twice, (not out loud!) breathing in and then when breathing out. After this, another period of music precedes a final prayer. It doesn't suit everyone but it is something worth trying. Sometimes we have a few comments, even laughter, afterwards! In today's busy-ness people often find this simple and yet cathartic. Even children in school use silence as a restful experience!

Perhaps, give it a try? Join us, you are most welcome.

Almighty God,
shepherd and guardian of all,
We pray for your servant Pope Leo.
Grant him grace to follow in the footsteps of the Good Shepherd,
to preach the Gospel with boldness,
to build up your people in unity and peace,
and to serve them with humility and love;
through Jesus Christ our Lord.
