From Rev'd Richard Grant

Hello!

A year ago, I wrote about life feeling chaotic, slightly stressful, and full of anticipation as I prepared to move to Easingwold. As I packed up my life in Thirsk, it was hard to imagine what life would look like once I was settled in, or quite what the year ahead would hold.

Looking back now, I'm struck by how difficult it can be to remember exactly how we felt at different points in our lives. You've probably noticed that I tend to exist in the moment, and the emotions I'm feeling now have a habit of dulling the memories of the emotions I felt before! It's easy to forget just how uncertain something once felt, or how much we worried about something that now seems quite ordinary.

I think that's true to some degree for all of us, and it's certainly true of our journeys with God. It's often only when we pause and look back over a longer stretch of life that we begin to notice the things God has been teaching us, the ways in which we have grown, and the different ways he has accompanied us through different seasons. Sometimes we need his strength; sometimes his comfort; sometimes his challenge; and sometimes simply the reassurance that we are not alone.

As I look back over my first year here, I'm grateful for the welcome I've received, for the people I've met, and for the many conversations and experiences that have helped Easingwold and Raskelf become home. Of course, there is still plenty for me to learn and my wall map still shows many more paths and roads to explore, but I have a much better sense of the place and the people I am here to serve. I'm thankful for God's goodness to me in calling me here, and I'm both enjoying what God is doing here and looking forward to seeing what he has in store over the coming years.

I know it's easy to talk about God's faithfulness when life feels settled, and much harder to hold on to that confidence when things are difficult. When we're in the middle of uncertainty, grief, anxiety or change, it can be hard to see beyond what we're experiencing right now. We may struggle to feel God's presence, let alone recognise what he might be doing in our lives.

But perhaps that's part of what faithfulness means: continuing to trust that God is with us, even when we cannot see it clearly. We hold on to the hope that he is looking out for us in the difficult times, and when we are able to look back, we may begin to recognise the ways in which he was there all along. That doesn't mean every difficulty makes sense in retrospect, or that looking back takes away the pain of what we've been through. But it does mean that our present circumstances are never the whole story.

King David's words are a helpful reminder of this for me:

*"I remain confident of this:
I will see the goodness of the Lord
in the land of the living.*

*Wait for the Lord;
be strong and take heart
and wait for the Lord."*

(Psalm 27:13–14)

I love the way these words hold together both confidence and waiting. David speaks of trusting in God's goodness, but also of needing courage and patience. Faith doesn't mean that we always feel confident, or that we know how things will turn out. Sometimes it means holding on to the promise of God's goodness while we wait to see it for ourselves.

As I begin my second year here, my prayer is that I will continue to grow in my understanding of this community and in my ability to serve it faithfully. And my prayer for all of us is that, whatever season of life we find ourselves in, we might know God's presence with us: giving us strength when we need it, comfort when we are struggling, and hope when the way ahead is unclear.

And perhaps, every now and then, we might take a moment to look back, too. Not simply to remember how far we have come, but to notice the ways God has walked with us along the way.

With my prayers,

Richard

Let's Never Forget Their Sacrifice

Last autumn I had the privilege of watching as a Commonwealth War Graves Commission headstone was installed for a member of my family. The headstone was for 436 Private Richard Frost of the Army Veterinary Corps who died in 1916.

He had been lost to us as a family and to military history because he died an orphan, unmarried and after discharge from service. It was only because I found his funeral card in some family papers that I became aware of his existence.

*436 Private
Richard Frost
Army Veterinary Corps*

It took five years of research and email correspondence with the Commonwealth War Graves Commission and Enfield Council before he got the recognition he so richly deserved.

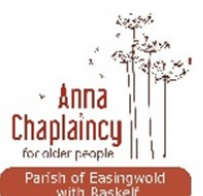

Ironically on the same day and in the same cemetery the Commonwealth War Graves Commission installed a headstone for a cousin he probably never knew.

*His cousin
Private Frederick Frost, Royal Fusiliers*

Heavenly Father, help us to remember all those who have made the ultimate sacrifice so we can live. Amen

THE CHILDREN'S SOCIETY HALF-YEARLY COLLECTIONS

A very sincere 'Thank You' to all who so kindly donated to the Children's Society for our half-yearly collection in October. A sum of £334 has been forwarded on behalf of the parish to this very deserving charity – a wonderful addition to our contributions in the first half of this year. Well done!

Most of us have been very fortunate to have enjoyed a stable and loving family life but many young people have not been so lucky, and this is where the Children's Society steps in. Not only does it provide direct support where needed but it also seeks to create a positive shift in social attitudes towards disadvantaged children. We as a parish have supported it for many years and, with your help, will continue to do so.

As a reminder, if you would like to hold a box for loose change, or would care to find out more or offer a donation, please get in touch.

Samaritan's Purse Shoe Box Appeal 2026-27

Please return your filled shoebox to church as soon as possible as they are being collected soon this month. Place them inside on the table behind the door.

If you don't feel able to fill a box, perhaps you would consider giving a donation of £5 (or more) to help with associated costs. If the latter, please put in an envelope marked "Samaritan's Purse" and give to Chris Peel.

Thank you to all who have filled a box in the past and to those of you contributing in any way this year. With increasing poverty around the world these gifts are so appreciated by their recipients.

BIBLE READING FELLOWSHIP NOTES

We are all encouraged to read the Bible to help us in our spiritual journey. Where do we start? It is quite daunting. This is where the Bible Reading Fellowship can help us. 'New Daylight' is a daily reading of a short section from the Bible with an explanation of the reading. This helps the reader to understand it, and it makes life easier for us because we don't have to find it in the Bible ourselves.

Please contact Gina, either in Church or by phone on 01347 823843. She can show you examples and, if you decide you would like to try it, she will order it for you and deliver it. There are three copies a year, in January, May and September at a total cost of £16.20 for standard print or £19.56 for large print versions.

Gina Smith - 01347 823843—BRF Co-ordinator

PRAYER CORNER

Prayer is at the heart of what the church offers to the community, and the prayer corner in St John the Baptist and All Saints' is used regularly. It is a space where you are able to write the names of people you would like to have remembered in the book there. At St John the Baptist and All Saints', we join with you in your prayers for family, friends and all for whom you care.

If you would like prayers for yourself or another, or for those who, at this time, are struggling with anxiety, loneliness and isolation, our small, confidential and dedicated group of people will pray for you/them.

To be included in prayers, please contact Chris Peel on 01347 823548.

Please include in your prayers this month:

- ◇ All Councillors serving the town and area, their meetings and decision-making; their arranged activities
- ◇ The elderly living in the Park Close, Paradise Fields, Croft Close and St. Monica's Garth area
- ◇ Youth work in Easingwold and Raskelf; all the uniformed organisations; COZIE
- ◇ Raskelf villagers' outreach and fund-raising activities for the church

PETITION

It is natural for us to pray for a safe journey or for success in our job interview or for the well-being of someone we love.

However, even though we believe that God answers our prayer –

“Ask and it shall be given to you” (Matthew 7) -

there are some questions which perhaps we should ask ourselves about what we are asking.

Does it ever cross our mind that our diagnosis to a problem could be wrong, or that although we might be asking for the right thing, it might not be the right time. What can be missing is humility - that complete surrender to God which pervaded all that Jesus said and did. His prayer was always that God's will might be done.

How detailed then should our prayer requests be? In the Lord's Prayer we are taught to ask simply and briefly for our essential needs: just bread and forgiveness. There are obvious difficulties about being too specific. If we ask God to intervene and arrange events to suit us then someone else may be deprived or hurt – I might want sunshine for a wedding, whereas someone else may want rain for their special plants!

Another danger arises if we have not been aware of what God is already doing in response to our prayers. Perhaps we should be discovering what God is doing and be doing it with him.

Praying in faith means praying in the faith that we are being heard and being heard with love. What is to come after is not in our hands. Prayer may have zeal, faith, persistence, all these splendid qualities. But to these must be added the most vital ingredient of all, our own surrender to God.

Nancy, Sara and Chris

COMMUNITY BIBLE STUDY

Are you interested in joining a lively group who simply enjoy being together exploring deeper into God's Word for today?

Community Bible Study is rooted in prayer and we share a strong desire to help all people who want to understand the world through the Bible. This year, over 30 weeks, we will be looking at Daniel and Revelation, an apt study for our present times.

We meet at 9:30am in Kurt's Bar, Galtres Centre, where we offer a welcoming, safe environment for people to share and grow together in confidence starting on Wednesday 9th September and following the school year, finishing on 12th May 2027.

Why not come and try a session or two for free? If you decide to join us we ask for a small charge to cover refreshments, materials and room booking.

For further information please contact Sally by email to cbsi@dsign.plus.com

HARVEST FESTIVALS AT EASINGWOLD AND RASKELF

Recent weeks saw us celebrating harvest and singing many well-loved harvest hymns at both Easingwold and Raskelf churches.

At Easingwold, the children brought gifts to the chancel, which were later donated to the local foodbank. Afterwards, around 50 of us enjoyed a superb harvest lunch of a variety of delicious soups, rolls and scrumptious desserts. Thanks go to all who worked hard to provide and then serve such a lovely meal.

At Raskelf, Robin told us all about RABI and, thanks to your generosity, £263 was collected and donated to the cause. Thank you!

DOREEN HAYES

Last month we said farewell to Doreen, longstanding member of our church family. It was good to see so many friends at her funeral and the family thank everyone for their condolences. As you will have read in the October magazine, Doreen loved her music and embraced all genres. This is reflected in the following poem written many years ago by Patricia Playforth.

Christian Meditation

Most Fridays at 2.30pm to 3.15pm at the Galtres Centre Function Room (upstairs)

It includes periods of music and silent meditation

In today's culture this is an opportunity of being together in a reflective mood including silence. After a brief period of spoken reflection we experience some reflective music. We then enter a period of silent meditation for about 20-25 minutes. Some people use a 4-beat mantra such as 'Ma-ra-na-tha' (or Come Lord Jesus), said twice, (not out loud!) breathing in and then when breathing out. After this, another period of music precedes a final prayer. It doesn't suit everyone but it is something worth trying. Sometimes we have a few comments, even laughter, afterwards! In today's busyness people often find this simple and yet cathartic. Even children in school use silence as a restful experience!

Perhaps give it a try? Join us, you are most welcome.
