IT'S GOOD TO SMILE

From the Mouths of Babes

At a school Nativity Play in Derby, three six year olds were cast as the Kings. Presenting their gifts at the stable, the first said: "Gold", the second: "Myrrh", and the third: "And Frank sent this".

("Peterborough" in Daily Telegraph)

A mischievous boy was asked by his mother,
"How do you expect to get into heaven?"

He thought for a moment and said,
"Well, I shall just run in and out and keep slamming the door until they say,
'for goodness sake come in or stay out',
and then I'll go in". (C.H.)

From Rev'd Richard Grant

Dear All,

Christmas is coming! Advent is here, the beginning of a new church year is upon us, and the countdown has begun. Advent candles will be lit, calendar doors will be opened, and carols will be sung. Thinking of carols – I wonder what your favourite carol is?

I find it hard to pick a favourite, but one advent carol I'm very fond of is 'O come, O come, Emmanuel', which includes this fantastic verse:

*O come, Thou Dayspring, from on high,
And cheer us by Thy drawing nigh;
Disperse the gloomy clouds of night,
And death's dark shadows put to flight.
Rejoice! Rejoice! Emmanuel
Shall come to thee, O Israel.*

It's a cracker of a hymn, rooted deeply in the bible, and it ties in particularly with one of my favourite Christmas bible readings, from the gospel of John: 'The light shines in the darkness, and the darkness has not overcome it.'

This is a tricky time of year for many: The nights definitely feel like they're closing in, and the festive joy of the nation can sometimes serve to highlight our own pain, sorrow, and loss. If that's something you are experiencing, then I hope you will find some comfort in the promise that 'the darkness has not overcome'. Just as in less than a month the days will start to get longer and the nights shorter, we are promised in Christ a better time to come. A time when we will be reunited with those we have loved and lost, a time when pain will be no more, a time when the darkness will not even be a distant memory.

We all approach Christmas differently, but I hope that each one of you will experience Christ's presence in this season. My prayer is that we would all experience light in the darkness, know joy this Christmas, and grow in love for one another and for the God whose incarnation we celebrate.

Yours,

Rev'd Richard

CHURCH DECORATION

We will be making Christingles and decorating the church for Christmas on Tuesday 23rd December from 9.30am

All help will be appreciated

History of Christingle: Christingle services have been taking place for over 50 years. The first Christingle took place at Lincoln Cathedral in 1968, but Christingles themselves go back much further to the Moravian church in Germany. At a children's service in Marienborn in 1747, Bishop Johannes de Watteville looked for a simple way to explain the happiness that had come to people through Jesus, and created a symbol – the Christingle – to do this. Each element of a Christingle has a special meaning and helps to tell the Christian story.

The orange represents the world

The red ribbon (or tape) symbolises the love and blood of Christ

The sweets and dried fruit represent all of God's creations

The candle represents Jesus's light in the world, bringing hope to people living in darkness

AN EXCITING NEW ERA FOR EASINGWOLD AND RASKELF

We were delighted to welcome Rev'd Richard Grant as the new Vicar of Easingwold and Raskelf at his collation service on 21st October by Rt Rev'd Flora Winfield, Bishop of Selby, Canon Liz Hassall, Archdeacon designate of York, and Rev'd Nikki Eastwood, Easingwold Area Dean. The very well attended service included representatives of the Town Council, local organisations and other churches, the Deanery Choir in its customary fine voice, and members of Richard's previous parish in Thirsk.

Richard said of his appointment: "I'm very much looking forward to taking up this role, to joining the churches of Easingwold and Raskelf in their mission to the parish, and to seeing what God has in store for us together. I have felt very much welcomed by those I've met so far, and am very excited to work with all in the parish as we seek God together and try to do his work. At interview I had the opportunity to reflect on Jesus' words: 'You are the light of the world... let your light shine before others.' Those words have stuck with me as I have prayed since, and I'm excited to join the lights that shine in Easingwold and Raskelf and bring glory to God. While an exciting new season awaits, I've had a fantastic curacy and it's sad to say goodbye to the benefice of Thirsk. I'm very grateful to the people of Thirsk, South Kilvington, Sandhutton and Carlton Miniott for all they have taught me during my time with them and for the many joyful times we've shared. Despite moving on, they will remain in my prayers".

It was a truly moving and most happy occasion, and the congregation enjoyed a host of home-made cakes and refreshments afterwards.

Richard is joined by his wife Tess in this new chapter in their lives, and the churches in Easingwold and Raskelf offer them both a very warm welcome as they join our community.

YOU and ME

.....bringing people together

Beetle Drive—the name conjures up nostalgic images of vintage cars but, on the evening of Friday 21st November, thirty people in teams of four joined in the fun of this favourite family game. Nothing to do with cars but everything to do with a pencil, a piece of paper and a dice, a game played at a fast pace. Held in the warm and comfortable function room at the Galtres centre this simple game proved to be an entertaining and inclusive way of bringing people together on a cold evening. The event was enhanced by a break for refreshments which were very well received and welcome on such a cold evening. Thank you to all those people who supported this event

Samaritan's Purse Shoe Box Appeal 2025

Thank you to all who have filled a shoe box this year, to those who have knitted hats and to those who have made a donation towards the costs of sending these boxes. Forty-eight shoeboxes were collected from us by Terry (Area Coordinator) on the 17th November, together with the surplus hats and the donations which amounted to £125. I am not sure where our boxes will end up, but I do know that they are always valued by the children who receive them. Do start collecting for next year!!

Christmas Pudding

Do you like Christmas pudding?

Over the years I've come to the conclusion that this is one dessert you can't be indifferent about, you either like it or you don't.

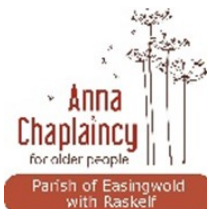

If you fall into the 'like it' group there's then the question of what type of sauce you have with it. Are you a traditionalist who likes a rum or brandy sauce or someone with slightly more modern tastes for fresh cream or ice-cream.

Then for those who don't like Christmas pudding there's the problem of what you have instead. There's sherry trifle, profiteroles, chocolate mousse.... The list is endless!

Whatever you're having for dessert at Christmas, just ENJOY IT!

Heavenly Father, help us to be grateful for the food we will enjoy at Christmas and to remember those who will not have enough to eat. Amen

PRAYER CORNER

Prayer is at the heart of what the church offers to the community, and the prayer corner in St John the Baptist and All Saints' is used regularly. It is a space where you are able to write the names of people you would like to have remembered in the book there. At St John the Baptist and All Saints', we join with you in your prayers for family, friends and all for whom you care.

If you would like prayers for yourself or another, or for those who, at this time, are struggling with anxiety, loneliness and isolation, our small, confidential and dedicated group of people will pray for you/them. To be included in prayers, please contact Chris Peel on 01347 823548.

Please include in your prayers this month:

- ♦ All Christmas planning and activities; that all may think of others less fortunate than themselves
- ♦ Those who will be alone this Christmas - the poor; the homeless; refugees; all those who feel forgotten and unloved.
- ♦ Christians Together Around Easingwold – shared worship and activities
- ♦ Charities and individuals - who try to support those especially in need at this time, but also providing support throughout the year

Why Not Pray?

In the parable of the judge and the widow (Luke 18:1-8) we learn something about prayer. The widow is persistent in her seeking justice and in the end the judge gives in and grants her request. If even such a disrespectful man can do the right thing in the end, how much more might our actual prayers affect the course of history, the course of our lives? Prayer changes us. If we don't lose heart, it's the way we keep seeking after God's own heart, the way we keep channels of communication open between us and God. The parable is a plea to keep praying, even when it seems we are shouting into a vacuum. It's a plea not to get stuck in hopelessness, but to keep going, keep trusting, keep praying. God is not the unjust judge. God is God, who hears our prayers and draws closer and closer to us through them. We might not know the best outcome as we move forward in life, but God does.

Remembrance Day/Armistice 2025

On Sunday 10th November, we commemorated Remembrance Day following the town's tradition of a service at St John the Baptist and All Saints Church where a wreath was laid at the memorial.

A parade to the War Memorial in the Market Place followed where we were joined by clergy and worshippers from other churches in the town for the civic wreath laying ceremony. We were blessed with good weather for the large crowd which attended to pay respects and to remember those who gave the ultimate sacrifice in WWI, WWII and the many other conflicts that have taken place over the years. It was noticeable that, during the two-minute silence in the Market Place, not a sound was heard save that of birds as they flew overhead.

A further service was held on Tuesday 11th November at the War Memorial for Armistice Day when a lone piper played and, following the names of the fallen being read, a wreath was laid by the Easingwold Branch RBL

A huge thank you to all who decorated the church so beautifully for this special occasion and also credit to all the young people who took part in the parade, especially the students from Outwood Academy and Easingwold Primary School for giving the readings in the church service.

Anna Chaplaincy – What is it?

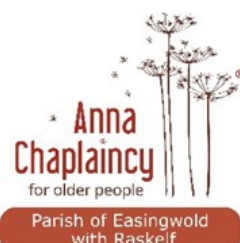

Anna Chaplains are out and about visiting older people in care homes, cafes, groups and in their own homes. They visit those of faith or none and will talk about anything from God to 'what's for lunch'! Anna Chaplains love to talk but are mostly there to listen.

They hope to bridge gaps where other services are not able to help, to support the isolated, listen to the lonely, comfort the bereaved and sit with the dying.

They are privileged to walk alongside those in need.

If you, or someone you know, would like a visit from Sara, our parish Anna Chaplain please call 07985080161 or email

Christian Meditation

Most Fridays at 2.30 pm to 3.15 pm at the Galtres Centre Function Room (upstairs)

It includes periods of music and silent meditation

In today's culture this is an opportunity of being together in a reflective mood including silence. After a brief period of spoken reflection we experience some reflective music. We then enter a period of silent meditation for about 20-25 minutes. Some people use a 4-beat mantra such as "Ma-ra-na-tha" (or Come Lord Jesus), said twice, (not out loud!) breathing in and then when breathing out. After this, another period of music precedes a final prayer. It doesn't suit everyone but it is something worth trying. Sometimes we have a few comments, even laughter, afterwards! In today's busy-ness people often find this simple and yet cathartic. Even children in school use silence as a restful experience!

Perhaps, give it a try? Join us, you are most welcome.
